

Respecting the Rules

Better Road Safety Enforcement in the E.U.

European Commission DG Energy &Transport
Road Safety Unit

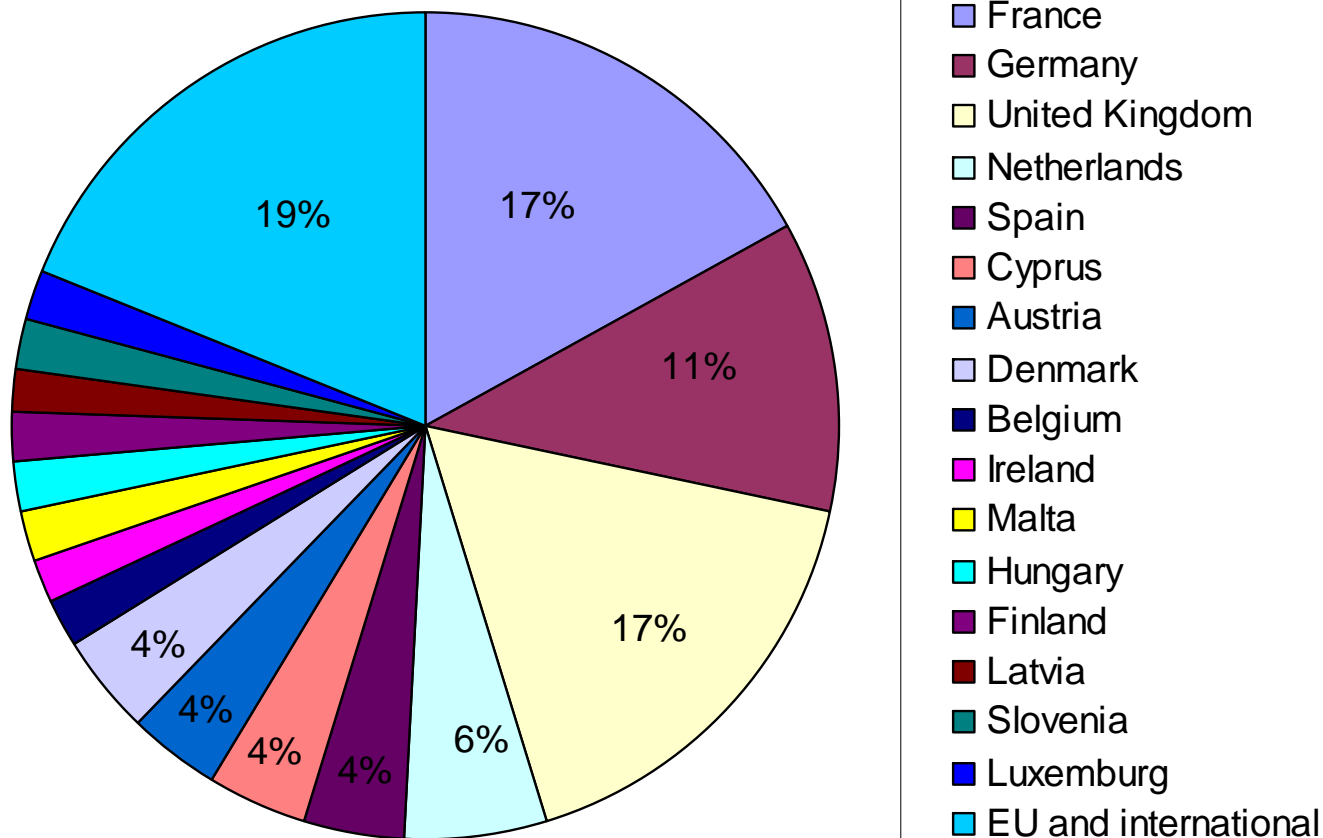

Public consultation

- The public consultation was held between 6 November 2006 and 19 January 2007
- 54 comments were received from various contributors:

Governments and Public Authorities	15
Companies and Industrial Federations	16
Research and Studies Organisations	7
Users Associations	8
Road Infrastructure Operators	4
Individuals	4
TOTAL	54

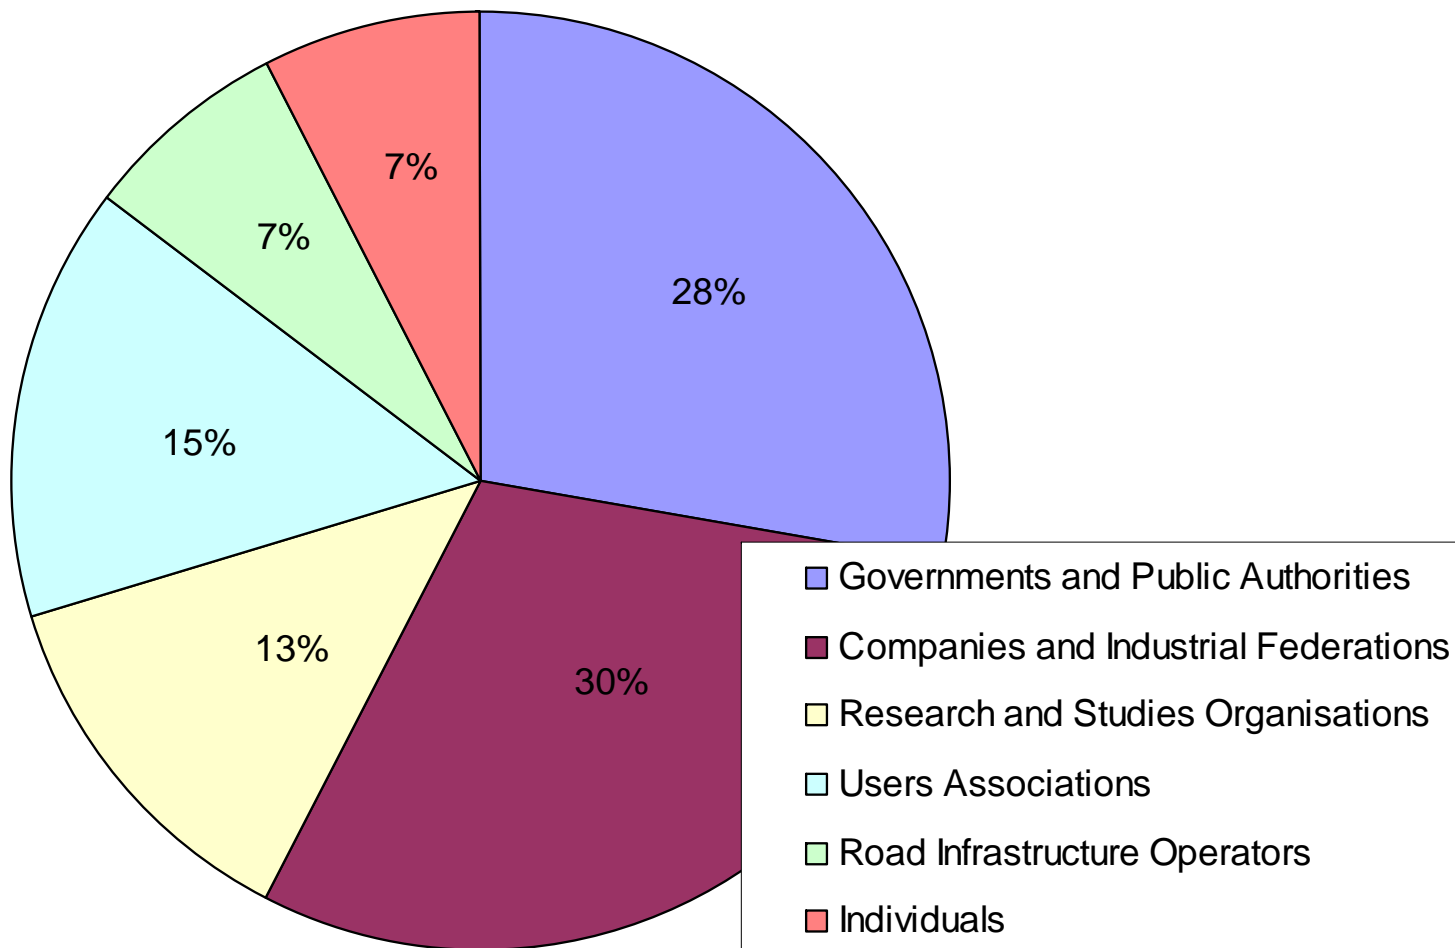

Origin of the comments received by Member State

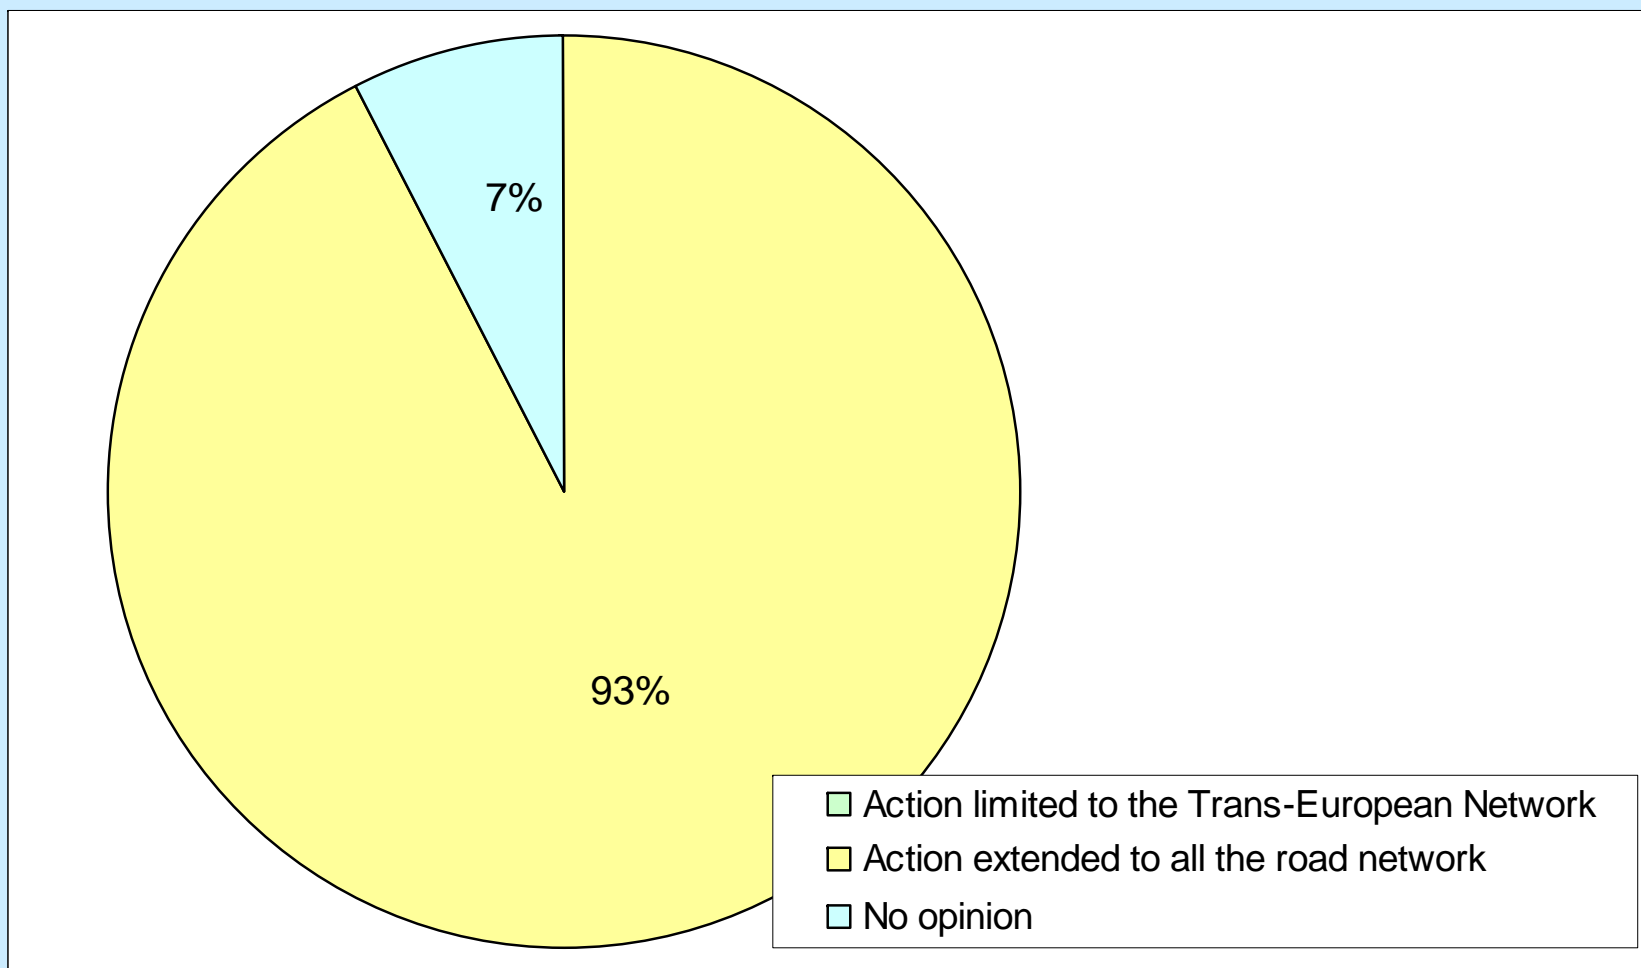

Origin of the comments received by category

Question n°2

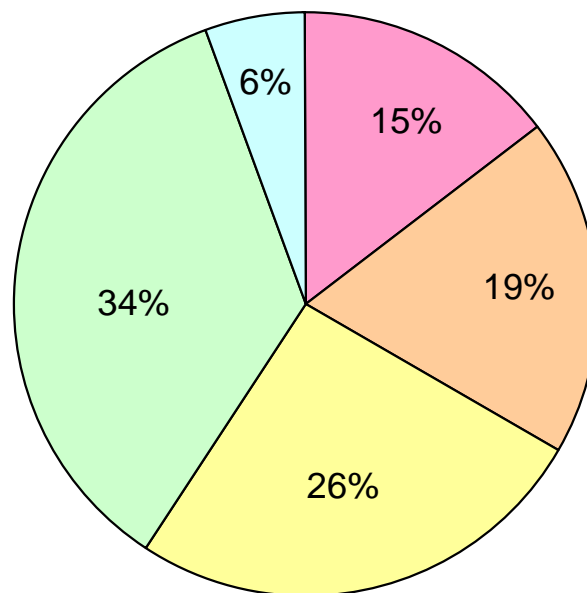

Should EU actions be limited to the Trans-European Road Network or cover all EU roads ?

Question n°3 (1/2)

Should EU actions be limited to the three main traffic offences responsible for road accidents (speeding, drink driving and non-use of seatbelts) or should they cover all traffic offences ?

- Scope limited to drink driving, speeding and seatbelts
- Scope extended to some other offences
- Scope extended to all other offences
- Scope initially limited to drink driving, speeding and seatbelts, progressively extended to all offences
- No opinion

Question n°3 (2/2)

➤ Some stakeholders favour an extension of the scope to other traffic offences. The offences concerned are related to:

- Driving under influence of medicines or drugs
- Helmet wearing
- Driving and resting time for professional drivers
- Weight and dimensions of cargos
- Transport of dangerous goods by road (ADR)
- Fraud on toll road collection
- Traffic lights
- Safety distance between vehicles
- Respect of pedestrians crossing

➤ Some stakeholders favour a differentiation of the scope:

- Limited to the three main offences on the national level
- Extended to all traffic offences for cross-border enforcement

Question n°4 (1/2)

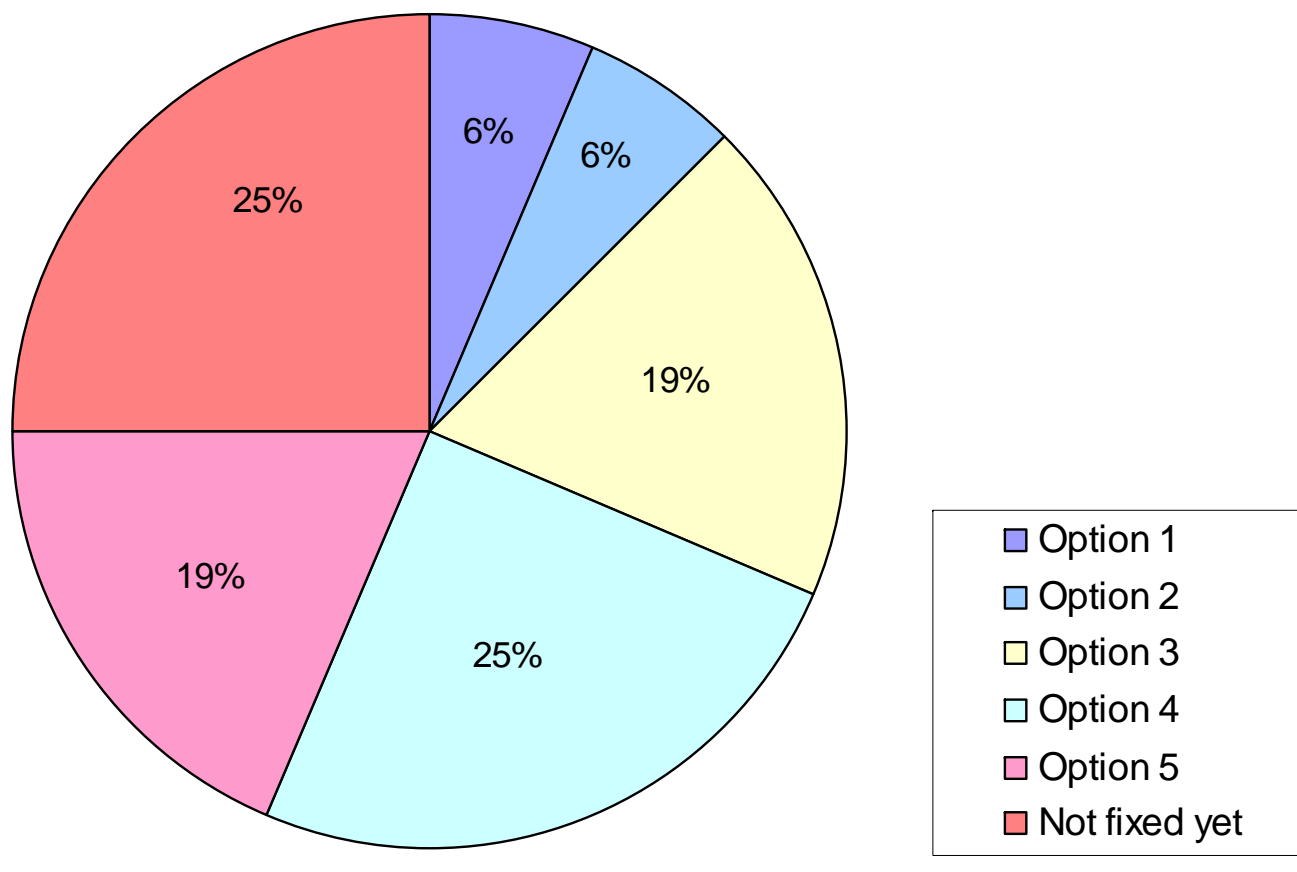

Which policy option would have your preference?

Question n°4 (2/2)

Which policy option would have your preference?
Among Governments and Public Authorities

Thank you very much for your attention

Commission Road Safety website

http://ec.europa.eu/transport/roadsafety/index_en.htm